Sir,

Sub: Building--Office of the Inspector of Factories,Mangalore--Office cum residence Sanction of rent 1951-52--Requested.

--o--

The office of the Inspector of Factories, Mangalore was located in a private building "No.2 Joy Villa, Silva lane, Kankanady, Mangalore upto 3-7-1951. The Inspector of Factories, Mangalore addressed the Rent Controller to allot a suitable building for locating hispffice and the office of the Assistant Inspector of Labour, Mangalore II. The building allotted by the Rent Controller was small and was not also centrally located. Hence the Inspector of Factories, Mangalore secured a private building No.1. Joy Villa, Silva Lane, Kankanady, Mangalore on a rent of Rs.95/- per mensem. The office of the Inspector of Factories, Mangalore was shifted to the new building "No.1. Joy Villa,Silva Lane, Kankanady, Mangalore on 4-7-1951. The office of the Assistant Inspector of Labour, Mangalore II was also shifted to the new building from 16-7-51. The Inspector of Factories, Mangalore was also permitted to occupy a portion of the building as his residence from 4-7-51. The Executive Engineer, South Kanara Division has certified that no Government building is available to locate the office of the Inspector of Factories, Mangalore and the office of the Assistant Inspector of Labour, Mangalore II in the P.W.D. list for 1951-52 and apportioned the rest as follows:

Office portion:	Rs65/-
Residential portion:	Rs.30/-
Total	Rs.95/-

The Executive Engineer also certified that the rent is based on the plinth area occupied as contemplated in G.O.No.246 P. W.D. dated 23-6-1950. I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the rent as apportioned above from 4-7-1951 to 31-3-1952. The expenditure may be debited to "47.Miscellaneous Department - b. Factories - B. Inspector of Factories - 4.other charges - office contingencies - Voted.".
